COMPETITION SYSTEM

The Swimming competition has forty one (41) events: 19 female events, 19 male events and 2 mixes events. There will be preliminaries in the mornings, "B" finals and "A" finals in the afternoons in all the events, except 800m Female Freestyle, 1500m Male Freestyle and all the reliefs, where there will only have "A" final. Eight (8) tracks will be used for both, preliminaries and finals.

For the 800m female and the 1500m male, swimmers with the slower scores will swim in the morning and the swimmers with the 8 best scores will swim in the afternoon in the final. In each event, morning scores obtained from the preliminary serie will compete with the afternoon final serie.

JUDGES AND TECHNICAL OFFICIALS

President of CCCAN, in agreement with the international technical delegate, will name all the officials who are going to participate in the development and control of competitions according to the following instructions:

CCCAN through an official message, will ask the participants to postulate their judges or officials to be considered to participate in the games, including Colombia.

The proposals of the federations will be evaluated by the president of CCCAN and the international technical delegate and will designate by agreement with the Olympic Committee a maximum of 36 international technical officials, members of FINA.

The Colombian Swimming Federation would postulate all the pending judges and officials, including administrative personnel, results control, control rooms teams, maintenance personnel and other technical crew. National Federations must follow CCCAN policies no later than March 10th 2018, with a CC to their National Olympic Committee and to the hosting Olympic Committee.

PROTESTS AND APPEALS

All the protests and appeals must be done to the competition referee, according to the FINA GR 9.2 law.

CCCAN Executive Committee will define the appealing judges for technical issues. Appeals judges will receive and will solve all the appeals delivered, according to the FINA GR 9.3 law.

START POSITIONS

Start positions for all swimming events will be established according to the FINA manual SW 3 law.

The competition will be classifying for LIMA 2019 and for other FINA events. The Colombian Swimming Federation will be responsible for requesting to ODEPA and FINA this consideration.

Based on the quota established by CACSO, the Water Polo competition will have a maximum of one hundred eighty-two (182) athletes. According to FINA Regulation 5.1, each team will consist of thirteen (13) members.

TEAMS:

Women´s: Six (6) teams of thirteen (13) athletes each = seventy-eight (78) female athletes.

Men´s: Eight (8) teams of thirteen (13) athletes each = one hundred and four (104) male athletes.

POSSIBLE ADJUSTMENT:

This quota could change according to the new regulation under evaluation. The maximum amount of athletes could change from 13 to 11. This decision will be taken at FINA World Championship 2017. If the change is approved, the maximum number of participants would be one hundred and fifty-four (154) athletes.

If FINA approves it in 2017, teams would be as follows:

Women´s: Six (6) teams of eleven (11) athletes = sixty-six female athletes.

Men´s: Eight (8) teams of eleven (11) athletes = eighty-eight male athletes.

Each NOC may enter one (1) team per gender as long as they meet with the qualifying system established by CCCAN for the XXIII Central American and Caribbean Games, Barranquilla 2018.

PROTESTS AND APPEALS

Protests may be made in accordance with FINA Rule GR 9.2.

FINA Representative and the CCCAN Executive Committee will constitute the Jury of Appeals for technical issues. The Jury of Appeals will receive and resolve all protests and appeals submitted, in accordance with FINA Rule GR 9.3.

TECHNICAL MEETING

The technical meeting will take place on Wednesday, July 25th, 2018 at Puerta de Oro Center in Barranquilla at 8:00 am.

The invitation card for the Technical Meeting will be available for the Heads of Team at the Sports Information Center of the Central American and Caribbean Village, upon their arrival.
